

The Mecklenburg County Dependance in Mirow, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern was opened on may 16, 1998, at the gatehouse.

The American friends helped furnishing and organizing the Dependance. The Dependance is a representation of Mecklenburg County and at the same time office for the Residenzschlossverein Mirow. It is open in the morning. One can find material about the life of Queen Charlotte, the city of Charlotte, NC, as well as the city of Mirow and its castle island.

An exhibition narrates stories about the contacts between Mecklenburg County, NC, and the German Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, and their friendship.
